Drama Arts Book. It's that time of year to celebrate an honored tradition: placing an ad for your favorite actor or actress in the 2017 Epiphany Drama Book!! This is a great way to showcase your support of your Drama Arts participant and provide them a keepsake that will last for years to come. You have two options: create your own (our favorite) or provide us with a photo of your student and we'll create a Star Ad on your behalf. The Drama Ad Order Form and a sample page of Star Ads were sent home in today's Thursday envelope. And, if you have questions, you are welcome to email dramaarts@epiphanymn.org for assistance.

Preschool Program will be hosting an Intergenerational Day on March 22/23 when parents and grandparents are invited to join preschool students for Lunch and Literacy. We'll have a good time combining creative and language arts! Following lunch we will first read Not a Box, by Antoinette Portis. Then, using our imaginations we'll create something unique of a box using an assortment of craft materials. Preschoolers look forward to having fun with their special guests.

Six middle school students were winners of the Epiphany Spelling held in February and are moving on to participate in the North Suburban Conference Spelling Bee at St. Raphael Catholic School this Monday, March 13th at 6:30 pm.
